THREE TORNADOES KILL MANY PERSONS IN CENTRAL STATES

Sixty Two Lives Are Reported Lost by Storms That Swept Chicago and Adjacent Territory

Hundreds of Homes Were Wrecked and Hundreds of Persons Were In- jured Besides Those Killed

(By United Press)

Chicago, March 29th—Tornadoes striking the mid-west yesterday, Palm Sunday, took sixty-two lives. Hundreds of homes were wrecked and hundreds of persons injured. An increase of casualties came every hour as communication interrupted by the storm was resumed.

The list of known dead reported here today were:

Chicago 6; Elgin, Ill. 7; Melrose Park, Ill. 11; Maywood, Ill. 1; Plainfield, Ill. 3; southern Wisconsin, 1; southern Michigan 8; Indiana 24 and Missouri, 1.

The western outskirts of Chicago made a picture of war torn country coupled with hanging wires, twisted girders and piles of debris intermingling. Swarms of persons are searching the wrecked buildings for those who might have been killed by the storm. State and city authorities immediately began relief work. The Red Cross sent workers a few hours after the storm started. The wounded who could not be cared for in homes still standing were rushed to the hospitals.

The tornado, according to the weather bureau here, developed from a storm originating in the far northwest. The whirling funnels dropped from heavy storm clouds when it hit this section. From reports here, it was believed three tornadoes developed near here. All were reported to have dissipated on striking the cold air over Lake Michigan. In the Chicago territory the national guard was called out on police duty. Wrecked stores and homes offered liberal booty for robbers, and there were plenty to appear. Soldiers stopped the robbers and as darkness came on all citizens were ordered off the street by the guards. Freaks were numerous.

Deaths Greater Than Reported

Atlanta, Ga., March 29—A telegraph message from Lagrange today said the death list due to the tornado there was far greater than indicated in earlier reports. The first report said sixty were killed.

South Visited by Tornadoes

Atlantic City, Ga., March 29—Between fifty and seventy persons were killed and hundreds injured, thousands made homeless and millions of dollars worth of property destroyed by a series of tornadoes which swept over a portion of Georgia and Alabama yesterday and last night, according to reports received here early today.

At LaGrange, Georgia, more than forty persons were reported killed. West Point, Ga., reported twelve dead and scores injured.

Many Dead, Hundreds Homeless

LaGrange, Ga., March 29—Relief workers today cared for more than three hundred families made homeless by the tornado which swept here late yesterday. Arrangements were made today to bury the dead. Appeal were sent to surrounding cities for food and clothing to care for the living and coffins in which to bury the dead. Every home and other buildings left undamaged by the storm were in use for temporary hospitals. Men searched the ruins for missing bodies. The relief workers after twenty-four hours of constant labor have restored order.

Tornadoes Take Heavy Toll in Ohio

Cleveland, Ohio, March 29—Between fifteen and twenty-five dead and two hundred injured was the estimate placed early today on the toll exacted by the terrific wind storm which swept the west edge of Ohio yesterday afternoon and late into the night. Several small villages were reported in ruins.

Tornadoes which swept eight states on Sunday, claimed a total of approximately 125 lives, destroyed millions of dollars worth of property and hundreds of families were left homeless.

Reports today show there were two storm areas—one in Georgia and Alabama and another in the middle west. Fire followed in the wake of the storm in some cities adding to the suffering.

Food, hospital supplies, physicians, nurses and clothing were rushed to the stricken areas today. The injured are being cared for in temporary buildings and debris was combed in the hunt for the missing. Lagrange, Ga., appears to be the hardest hit by the storm. Between forty and sixty persons were reported killed and more than three hundred were made homeless. West Point, Ga., reported five dead and Agricola, Ala., five dead.

The western storm appeared first near St. Louis where one was killed. It swept northward branching out over Indiana, Ohio, Illinois, Michigan and extending into Wisconsin. It finally spent itself over Lake Michigan.

Reports reaching the outside world over badly crippled wires showed the following cities hit with the toll of dead:

West Liberty, 7 dead; Monroeville, 13; Edgerton, 1; Zulu, 3. In addition Geneva reported six lost. The towns of West Liberty and Edgerton were reported practically wiped out. The storm traveled northwest and down the Indiana and Ohio line. Van Wert was hit. Two persons were killed by fire which followed the wind storm there. At Greenville, O., two were reported dead and twelve hurt. Nashville reported five dead. Practically all buildings in Nashville were leveled, a dispatch said. The storm reached Chicago near noon just as the crowds were leaving church.

Seven were killed in Elgin, seven in Chicago and fourteen in Chicago suburbs of Melrose Park, Maywood, Plainfield and Evanston.

The number of injured in the eight states was estimated at more than five hundred. In Michigan eight were reported dead and in Wisconsin one. The storm cut a swath two hundred feet wide in Elgin, destroying a theatre, store and two churches and many residences. Three persons were killed in Elgin when a church steeple collapsed. Many were killed in Elgin when the storm demolished the Baptist church. Nearly all of the cities hit by the storm were without light, water or gas.

Nominations for President Very Uncertain

Who the Nominees Will Be Will Not Be Known Until Conventions are Held

HAROLD D. JACOBS,
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

New York, March 29—Political conventions and primaries today apparently indicate just one thing—that the American will know who will be the republican and democratic candidates for president after the national convention in June and no sooner. Never in the record of political history has public sentiment been more widely diffused regarding the eligibility of the candidate, or where there have not been one or two men in each party who stood out above all the rest. There are now a drove of "eligibles."

One man in each party, whom political figures said should be in the running in the national conventions, so far have received no political endorsement. These men are Herbert Hoover and Wm. McAdoo. The former is now generally regarded as a republican, yet the only delegates pledged to him are three democrats. The latter has definitely refused to enter any primaries maintaining that all delegates should be uninstructed. Republican conventions and primaries to date show a total of forty-eight instructed delegates for Major General Leonard Wood; nine for Governor Lowden of Illinois, and ten for Senator Hiram Johnson.

Of the uninstructed delegates Lowden expects to get fourteen from Connecticut, seventeen from Georgia, twenty-six from Kentucky and eighty-five from Oklahoma, a total of seventy-five. Wood expects to control eight from Florida, twelve each from Louisiana and Maine and two from Oklahoma, a total of thirty-four. This makes Governor Lowden's total to date eighty-four, Wood eighty-two and Johnson ten.

This leaves Herbert Hoover, Governor Harding and Senator Poindexter entirely out of consideration and puts Johnson far behind in the running. Political observers however are certain that four men must be reckoned with.

Democratic results are even more meagre as regarding hope.

The totals so far show that Senator Robert Owen leads with twenty instructed delegates, Wm. J. Bryan and James W. Gerard with ten each and Hoover trailing with three. No one has tried to prognosticate where uninstructed delegates stand.

Wm. McAdoo, Palmer, Governor Edwards of New Jersey, Champ Clark and Governor Cox of Ohio, are all conceded a good chance for nomination. The democrats next move will be April 6, when conventions will be held in North Carolina, Minnesota and the Philippines, and primaries in Wisconsin and New York. The republicans will hold a state convention in Kansas March 31 and one in Georgia April 7. Primaries will be held in Maine and Rhode Island April 6 and in Wisconsin and New York on April 6.

Mrs. Shepley Wins; Judge De- nies Plea for $32000 Refund

"When Both Parties are Guilty Court Is Not Concerned," Decision Reads

Minneapolis, Minn., March 29—Mrs. Laura Shepley is the victor in William G. Mueller's suit to recover $32,000 he claims to have given her under threats.

Not only is the money gone beyond his recovery by law, but he must pay the costs arising out of his suit against Mrs. Shepley, according to decision of Judge J. C. Michael, on file in Ramsey county district court.

"When both parties are guilty," the judge wrote, "the court is not concerned in apportioning the relative guilt of the parties, but leaves them to suffer the consequences of their mutual wrong-doings."

Mueller charged Mrs. Shepley posed as a government agent during the war and intimidated him into giving her money repeatedly, the total reaching $32,000.

"An intensive campaign of love-making and money getting was waged between William and Laura," the judge said, "interspersed with about 600 fervent epistles and frequent meetings in divers hotels in sundry cities, accompanied, among other things, with tender glances, fond embraces, cafe luncheons, bonbons and taxi rides."

"During this time Laura separated from William in various amounts the aggregate sum of $32,000. William furnished the money with an easy liberality which was a delight to Laura, and without any hope or suggestion of its repayment, although Laura frequently promised to repay it, but instead of doing so, on one cold September morn, Laura told William to go to hell, and now William wants his money back."

Holds She Encouraged Mueller

"From the first meeting, William became violently infatuated with Laura and wanted to marry her as soon as he could obtain a legal separation from his own wife, and in the meantime he wanted Laura to submit to a course of illicit relations with him."

"Laura wanted the money and she received the same, well knowing such purpose and intention on the part of the plaintiff, and deliberately encouraged him in the hope and expectation of realization of his unlawful designs, in order to secure the money from him."

40 Day Stay Granted

Judge Michael granted a stay of 40 days in which Mueller may take steps for appeal. C. W. Sterling, associated with Clarence Darrow of Chicago, as attorney for Mr. Mueller, said last night he could not say what would be the next step until he had conferred with Mr. Darrow. The case probably will be appealed.

C. N. Dohs and G. W. Edgerton, of St. Paul and Henry Benton, of Minneapolis, who represented Mrs. Shepley, declared they were not surprised at the decision after admissions made by Mueller during the trial that he and Mrs. Shepley had occupied the same stateroom on a trip from St. Paul to Chicago.

They had based their contentions on the plea that Mueller did not come into court with clean hands.

Mueller is a wealthy china merchant of Chicago. He has a wife and four children.

Mrs. Shepley is the wife of Charles A. Shepley, construction engineer now employed in Chicago. They have three children.

Obituary

The death of Mrs. Ina Erb, wife of William H. Erb, marks the passing of one of the distinguished early citizens of Brainerd. She was a business woman of ability and as such took a great interest in the business affairs
and public welfare of the city.

Her life was connected with public affairs when Brainerd was yet a pioneer town. She came to Minnesota in 1880 and soon after to Brainerd.
Many of the old residents remember her as a dignified, reserved woman of splendid personality.

Her life was intimately identified with the church, first, with the Congregational then with the Presbyterian. Her interest was associated with the missionary activities, the prayer service, and the financial welfare of the church. For a number of years she served as treasurer and did excellent service in that capacity.

She was born in Syracuse, New York, November 9, 1849. From there she moved with her parents to Wisconsin in 1852, living in Palmyra and Baraboo. In 1880 she came to Minnesota and to Brainerd before the Northern Pacific was a main line to the coast.

In 1893 she married William H.
Erb. After his death she conducted the harness business of her husband's for a time. In recent years she was crippled by a fall and had to be cared for in an invalid's chair. Her death was caused by sarcoma.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs.
Ethelynn Sutter, of Portage, Wis., a grandson, Raymond Sutter, and a sister, Mrs. J. D. Leigh of Kilbourn. Interment was in Evergreen cemetery
where she is buried besides her husband.

Funeral services were held for her

HIGH COST OF LIVING SOLVED

Alligator on Display in White Brothers Window is Said to Eat but Once a Year

IS HIBERNATING AT PRESENT

Animal Received in City by Theodore Miller and Later is to be Stuffed and Mounted

The high cost of living has been satisfactorily solved by the alligator
on display in White Brothers store window. Art White said the animal eats once a year. At present he is hibernating and moves slowly and not even the presence of a fly appears to quicken his jaded appetite.

When first placed in the tank he saw his reflection in a mirror and prerelapsed to a comatose condition. He pared to fight, but since then he has is four feet in length and is said to be eight years old. He was received by Theodore Miller, a taxidermist, and is to be stuffed and mounted for a party.
Until that stage of embalming is reached, Mr. Alligator will continue to hold the boards at White's store
and be the center of an admiring throne of children and many grown-ups too.

AT THE SUNDAY SCHOOLS

The Salvation Army
Only a third of our scholars were present at Sunday school on account of storm.

The evening service was quite well attended but special speaker not present.

The life story of the heroine from France will be given Thursday evening without fail. Don't miss it.

First Congregational Sunday School

Owing to the unfavorable weather conditions, the attendance yesterday was very small. Easter offering boxes were distributed, and the regular course of lesson study was pursued.
In most of the classes a preparatory Easter lesson was taken up. After the session a short teachers' meeting was held.

The Study Class will meet at the parsonage on Wednesday. Next Sunday, the members of this class will be taken into the fellowship of the church.

Next Sunday, will be Missionary Sunday as well as Easter. A very interesting talk has been prepared and we look for a profitable Easter morning. We invite you to come.

Presbyterian Sunday School Notes

The class of Miss Vivian Anderson has changed the form of its organization and will adopt a new name and class motto. The class is making excellent progress.

The Sunday school presented the pastor, Rev. Lowrie, with a beautiful bouquet of roses on the occasion of his birthday and the church gave him a purse of forty-four dollars.
He expressed his thanks in appropriate words.

The primary department has adopted the duplex envelope for its system of giving to the maintainance of the school and its benevolence.
The main department has had this system now for several years and finds it a splendid help.

A splendid corps of officers were elected for the coming year and the school is anticipating excellent progress.

First Baptist Bible School

The Baraca class held a business meeting last Tuesday evening.

The World-Wide-Girls are asking the members of the school to assist them to fill the missionary box
now being packed.

They want clean cloths for bandages, clean empty bottles suitable for medicine, empty pill boxes, medicated
cotton and good clean garments.

One class of intermediate girls has been divided and the girls are now working to see which side will obtain the most new members.

Easter program will be given at the regular Bible school hour, 9:45
a. m., next Sunday. The school extends an invitation to visitors and all members of the church to attend. The program will be given by the Childrens' division, assisted by the school orchestra. A special feature will be the promotion exercise in the Cradle roll department where several tiny tois will be promoted to the beginner department.

Yesterday was decision day in the school at which time several pledged their lives to the service of the Master.

There will be baptism of several Bible school scholars and others at the services next Sunday.

The Bible school orchestra will assist in the concert at the evening program Sunday night.

Methodist Church School

Attendance Sunday dropped to 131.
This low attendance was doubtless on account of the storm.

Wednesday afternoon following the Ladies Aid meeting, the Primary, Junior and one class of the Intermediate departments will make a display of the work done during the quarter just closing. This exhibit will be continued until 6 o'clock and it is hoped that the parents will visit the exhibit and see the work done.
It is made for the benefit of the parents.

A meeting of the Board of the school will be held at the church following the meeting Tuesday evening.

The special "Gratitude offering"
will be taken Easter at the school hour. This fund has been liberally given to in past years and doubtless will be this year.

The entire school will be assembled in the auditorium at the close of the study period Easter and the Beginners, Primary and Junior departments will give a short program.
The Easter offering will then be received by classes.

Mrs. F. R. Bispham entertained the first year junior boys last week. The boys had an excellent time.

The third year junior girls held their monthly meeting at the home of Miss Emma Jean Clarkson.

The "C. H." boys class of the senior department elected the following officers last week: Harold Canfield, president; Clarence Nordstrom, vice president; Earl Fitzsimmons, Secy-
treas.

DON'T FUSS WITH MUSTARD PLASTERS!

Musterole Works Without the Blister—Easier, Quicker

There's no sense in mixing a mess
of mustard, flour and water when you can easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white Musterole.
Musterole is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients,
combined in the form of the present white ointment. It takes the place of mustard plasters, and will not blister.
Musterole usually gives prompt relief
from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis,
croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia,
headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frostbitten feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—
you have a bad taste in your mouth—

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil.
You will know them by their olive color.

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes,
no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get at the cause.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. Millions of boxes are sold

"Property is the fruit of labor; property is desirable; is a positive good in the world. That some should be rich shows that others may become rich, and hence is just encouragement to industry and enterprise. Let not him who is houseless pull down the house of another, but let him work diligently and build one for himself, thus by example assuring that his own shall be safe from violence when built."—Abraham Lincoln.

AMUSEMENTS

At the New Park Easter Sunday Remember Lloyd (Ham) Hamilton of the Ham and Bud comedies? Well, he'll be seen in "A Twilight Baby," a Henry Lehrman comedy production, declared to be one of the funniest shows ever shown on the New Park theatre screen. It will be shown Easter Sunday.

It has required a little over six months for Mr. Lehrman to produce this comedy which is his first of a series for the First National Exhibitors' Circuit. This is "Ham's" first appearance in nearly a year.

"It's 'some baby' says Manager Workman.

Coming to the New Park This Week

The art of dual role photography of the modern cinema has reached its height in "The River's End," a Jas. Oliver Curwood story, released thru First National, which will open at the New Park theatre this week. Probably no more perfect portrayal of a double role has yet been screened than that of Lewis Stone, whose double depiction of John Keith (wanted for murder) and Derwent Conniston (his capturer) are flawless examples of the hitherto undeveloped and somewhat primitive art. Parts of the production where the two characters (both portrayed by Mr. Stone) can be seen conversing together are indescribably life-like.

A HEAVY SNOW STORM PREVAILS

Rain on Sunday Was Succeeded by Two and a Half Inches of Heavy Wet Snow

MANY "SHORTS" ARE PRODUCED

Total Precipitation of Moisture, Rain and Snow, Amounted to 86 Hundredths Inch

Starting with rain and then changing to two and a half inches of snow, Brainerd had its merry spring-time succeeded by a burst of winter. The total precipitation of rain and snow Sunday amounted to 86 hundredths of an inch.

The thermometer which last week had scaled to 53 above, slid down to 15 above on Sunday night. Robins, drawn to this section by a reactionary spring, shivered in the trees and kind-hearted children spread crumbs for them.

Heavy, wet snow filled up electric signs and sagged electric power lines, resulting in many "shorts" which shut off service in places. Wire trouble was experienced along the railways.

Damage on Farm

Heavy snow massed on young trees at the farm of I. J. Storstad and broke, bent or twisted jackpines and Norways of 15 to 20 feet in height.

Telephone posts and wires are down in some sections. Roads are in bad shape.

LACK OF WATER IN NORTHEAST BRAINERD

Complaints Investigated and Found Due to the Faulty System There

PRESENT LINES INADEQUATE

Material for New Waterworks Held Up in Delivery and Causes Delay

Recently several complaints were heard about the lack of water in Northeast Brainerd. An investigation made by the Dispatch Reveals the following:

The insufficiency of water in Northeast Brainerd is due to the faultiness of the whole system. Any system should deliver as much water as may be needed at any place in the city at any time. The present system is wholly inadequate to do this, and that was pointed out emphatically a year or two ago when the city was requested to vote bonds.

The present old system, which is still in use, is but little better than no system; and to remedy the present situation, nothing but an entirely new system must be put in its place. Local or temporary repairs are not practical, and to obtain even a little benefit would involve too extensive a change, too large in expense, too much time to show results, and at best leave only a patch-work system.

The material for the new system has been held up in delivery and discourages the most optimistic and hopeful. The pumps and motors needed for the new system were to of all efforts that have been made it has been impossible to get them. The pump-house is ready for the main-line and fire-service pumps and the tubular wells are ready for the pumps needed there to produce water, but the pumps needed to draw the water are not obtainable.

It may be of interest to some to state that the two electric pumps now being used at the old pump-house are the ones that will be used in the new pump-house to deliver water from the reservoir into the new pipe-lines and into the tower, but, in contrast, the present old mains are so inadequate that not enough water can be delivered into Northeast Brainerd when the demand is heavy. The trouble is aggravated on those days when the shops draw water heavily.

A large part of our old main-line leading from the pump-house to the down town district and to Northeast Brainerd is what is known as Kalonien pipe—a cheap pipe which has proved unsatisfactory wherever used for long periods. Growths on the inside of this pipe reduce its size and in that way reduce the volume of water carried and the amount of discharge. If pipes are originally of too small a design, only a small obstruction is needed to greatly reduce the volume. Brainerd people only too commonly attribute lack of volume to leakages from this pipe, but leakages of a size to materially reduce volume can not possibly exist long and remain unknown.

Often some people say the pressure is poor. True, it is poor at certain particular places, but that is due to local causes and not the fault of the pumps, because at the pump house the pressure is always all that it is supposed to be.

The Water and Light Board has not been unmindful of the deficiencies and lately has been making extensive tests and investigations to learn if the biggest part of the fault may possibly be centered at some one spot and perhaps be possible of some ready alteration. After the Board made its own extensive tests, it had Mr. L. P. Wolf, the consulting engineer employed to build the new system, also spend two half-days in Brainerd on tests and conferences, because the Board wants to do what is possible and reasonable to give Brainerd water-service and protection.

No remedy or change considered would satisfy all defective conditions, nor could any effective one be carried through in a short time, therefore, to best meet most conditions and minimize most of the defects, it was ordered to immediately start work laying a second 16-inch main from the top of the cemetery hill on 16th and Bluff—close to the old pump house, go eastward by the cemetery to Pearl street in Northeast Brainerd, thence eastward on Pearl street to Third Ave., connecting there with a cast-iron main running north and south. Regardless of how much water the shops then use, that water the shops then use, that water will come out of the Kindred street main and the Laurel street main (south of the shops) and Northeast Brainerd will have virtually its own main and a big one too. Work on this line was begun Friday.

For most of the distance not much digging will be required to lay this main, and as the city crew is not busy now with other work, the main should be laid in record time. When this work is completed the frost will be out of the ground and other short stretches of poor pipe deeply buried will be replaced.

HIGH-DIVING DOG

Will Leap from Citizens State Bank Roof Immediately After Elks Spectacular Parade

A high diving poodle dog, owned by Exalted Ruler E. V. Wetzel of Little Falls, has been secured for a high dive from the Citizens State bank building roof and will do his hair-raising stunt just after the Elks spectacular parade Wednesday evening. The poodle will fly into space and land in a canvas whose ends will be held by a score of Elks.

B. E. Dunham, parade captain, is now assured of two goats and one donkey and further entries are expected for this section of the wild animal parade. White Brothers have been seen for a loan of their alligator. Several additional goat and donkey entries are expected from the farming community.

Snow will not interfere with the parade as Fred Sanborn has ordered a number of skis and snowshoes to be used in case of adverse weather conditions.

Elks colors are purple and white and it is expected to have several finely decorated automobiles in the parade.

The luncheon committee is getting busy. The chair officers will rehearse the ritual. The visitors expected will come from the four points of the compass, including several between points.

It is expected to haul Col. C. D. Johnson, the peerless orator, in a rig of ancient vintage and drawn by 29 Elks. Other features will be announced during the week, all leading up to the grand and glorious concatenation of refulgent and circumambient ephemeralities of the parade, which will be followed by the initiation of half a hundred candidates into the Elks lodge of Brainerd. The parade starts at 7 p. m. sharp.

LABOR NEWS

Anti-Strike Laws Fail
London, England, March 29.—The report of the ministry of labor shows that anti-strike legislation even during the war failed of its purpose. Under the munitions of war act, 1915, compulsory arbitration was introduced in the munitions trades at the option of the board of trade and strikes and lockouts were prohibited. Despite war conditions, it is stated that this system had "only a qualified success."

Commenting on this report, the London Times says:

"The fundamental objection to any scheme for the compulsory prevention of strikes is that no statutory prohibition and penalties will deter men from striking, if they are so minded. Experience in other countries demonstrated this fact before the war, and experience in this country during the war, when the patriotic impulse was strong, clinched the argument."

"If compulsory arbitration failed to prevent disputes in a time of national emergency, what hope is there that it would be more successful in normal times? The Whitley committee reported against it two years ago and the evidence of the present report reinforces their opinion."

"It is recorded with evident satisfaction by the ministry of labor that the awards of the arbitrators in the 8,000 cases dealt with during the five war years were almost universally accepted by the opposing sides."

Have Right to Unite
Springfield, Ill., March 29.—Trade unionists are asking the state constitutional convention to place in the Illinois organic act a provision that workers have the right to organize into trade unions and speak through representatives chosen by themselves.

The unionists show that employers, merchants, loan sharks, lawyers, bankers, clergymen, doctors, pawn brokers and every other division of our citizenship but the workers are freely acknowledged the right to be represented through spokesmen of their own choosing, and that organized labor is asking for no special privilege, but seeking to establish the right (and have such right incorporated into the state constitution) that will provide for them the same status and the same rights as are now enjoyed by other citizens.

18,279 Schools Closed
Washington, March 29.—Failure to provide adequate wages for teachers has closed 18,279 schools in this country, reports the United States bureau of education. This condition existed on February 13 last, and is based on returns from state school officials. In addition 41,900 schools were being taught by teachers characterized as "below standard, but taken on temporarily in the emergency." Greater shortages are shown to exist in southern states.
